

Member Services and Public Service Activities

- The ABA oversees all government relations with the Arizona Congressional Delegation in the U.S. Senate and Arizona State Legislature on industry issues
- The ABA provides its members with a FREE legal hotline through a law firm that specializes in broadcast and FCC issues
- The ABA manages the NCSA (Non-Commercial Sustaining Announcement) campaigns with such government agencies as the Arizona Army National Guard, US Coast Guard etc.
- The ABA conducts quality, timely sales seminars.
- The ABA manages the ABA Foundation, a 501-c3 charitable organization
- The ABA provides the Alternative Broadcast Inspection Program (ABIP) endorsed by the FCC
- The ABA is one of the major funding partners of the First Amendment Coalition of Arizona which provides legal support and maintenance for the free reporters "Media Hotline" & furnishes the reporter's Media Law Handbook
- The ABA supports the national career center web page providing access to members to post job openings
- Members receive the ABA E-Newsletter
- The official ABA website is: www.azbroadcasters.org , which includes a MEMBERS ONLY page, with access to monthly training webinars and daily legislative updates in the form of text and audio files from the AZ Capitol Times.
- The ABA is a non-profit 501©6 corporation

ABA Foundation Member Services and Public Service Activities

- The ABA Foundation oversees the Arizona Amber Alert Plan & System
- The ABA Foundation sponsors the annual High School Broadcast Institute at the Walter Cronkite School of Journalism & Telecommunications at Arizona State University and the Native American Workshop at Northern Arizona University School of Communication
- The ABA Foundation awards $10,000 in combined annual scholarships to Arizona universities and Pima Community College
- The ABA Foundation created the Ken Heady Endowment Scholarship Fund at the ASU Walter Cronkite School of Journalism & Telecommunications
- The ABA Foundation supports the Broadcasters Hall of Fame awards & Jack Clifford Excellence in Broadcast Education award
- The ABA Foundation supports the Pep Cooney Memorial Golf Classic
- The ABA Foundation is a non-profit 501©3 charitable organization